KENYA AT THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL (UNSC)

Kenya's non-permanent membership of the United Nations Security Council (UNSC) for the 2021-22 period has allowed for the continued advocacy of a safer, more prosperous and peaceful world. This has been predicated on the advancement of a four-point Agenda that has championed Regional Peace and Security; Countering Terrorism and Violent Extremism; Peace Support Operations; and Climate and Security.

The pursuance of these four-point Agenda, coupled with Kenya's expanding influence on the international stage, aptly dovetails with the country's philosophy and belief that global challenges are only surmountable if the world's rules-based multilateral system is deployed in a manner that attracts consensus, not only in the appreciation of the challenges, but also in the evolution of practical response strategies.

As with her previous terms at the Security Council during the 1973-74 period and the 1997-1998 period, Kenya will continue to lend her robust voice in calling for a fair and equitable international order; in advancing respect for international law; and in championing adherence to the UN Charter. This is with the overarching objective of promoting and advancing international peace and security.

His Excellency President Uhuru KENYATTA, Cabinet Secretary for Foreign Affairs Amb. Raychelle OMAMO, Ministry of Foreign Affairs Principal Secretary, Amb. Macharia KAMAU, Kenya's Ambassador to Germany Amb. Tom AMOLO, Kenya's Permanent Representative to the United Nations in New York, Amb. Martin KIMANI, Kenya's Ambassador to Ethiopia and Permanent Rep. to the African Union, Amb. Jean KAMAU, Kenya's Permanent Rep. to the UN-Habitat, Amb. Jean KIMANI, Kenya's Ambassador to Washington D.C. Amb. Lazarus AMAYO, Deputy Permanent Rep. to the United Nations in New York, Amb. Njambi KINYUNGU, Deputy Permanent Rep. to the United Nations Security Council (UNSC), Amb. Michael KIBOINO and Director for UN and Multilateral Affairs, Amb. Susan MWANGI.

Cabinet Secretary for Foreign Affairs Amb. Raychelle OMAMO during a Security Council Media Stakeout at the United Nations Security Council in New York in October 2021.

His Excellency President Uhuru KENYATTA chairs the UN Security Council High-Level Open Debate on Peacebuilding and Sustainable Peace: Diversity, State Building and the Search for Peace, at the UN Headquarters in New York in October 2021.

LEARN A FEW SWAHILI WORDS

Greetings in Kiswahili language.

- Habari means “hi” or “hello.” We can use this greeting with friends or relatives, but also with people we don’t know.
- Habari za asubuhi means “Good morning”. It is acceptable any time between approximately 5:30am and 12:00pm, when the day is still young.
- Habari za jioni means “Good evening”. This greeting is one you would use casually when night begins to fall. Address your friends, close family or close acquaintances, and those who are not your superiors, with this phrase.
- Uhali gani? Means “How are you?” This is the casual greeting form that you would use with your friends and family. For the sake of the friendship, it would be good to listen carefully to the answer! It shows caring and selflessness on your part.
- Umeshindaje? Means “How have you been?” This is a good question to ask someone you have not seen for a while. The inference is that some catching-up is needed!
- Habari za mchana means “Good afternoon”. It is an informal greeting and is used during the second part of the day. The appropriate period falls, in most cultures, from 12:00am till sunset.
- Ni vizuri kukuona tena means “It’s nice to see you again”. This friendly, welcoming phrase is best used after greeting someone you have not seen for a while.
- Siku yako imekuaje? Means “How’s your day?” Ask this when you’re speaking to your Swahili friend during the day. It’s a friendly phrase to start a conversation with.
- Jambo! Means “Hello!” Suitable for use in most settings, situations and persons, this is an important Swahili greeting to know.
- Ni vyema kukutana na wewe means “It’s nice to meet you”. When meeting someone for the first time, this is a polite and friendly way to welcome them. It means you are happy to make their acquaintance.
- Jina langu ni ____. My name is _____. This is simple. To say “my name is” in Swahili, you just need the phrase “Jina langu ni,” Then say your name.
- Mimi natoka Kenya means I am from Kenya.
